More Rumors About the Cella Books -A the Day at the Brighton Beach Track.

James B. Brady is evidently determined 85 get together a powerful racing stable, regardless of cost. Yesterday his trainer, Matt Allen, made a deal with F. A. Forsythe by which Brady secured the two-year-old colt Fountain Blue, by Oddfellow—Ferral, for $25,000 cash. Fountain Blue won a race at the Beach on Monday in such an impressive manner that he was quickly pronounced one of the best two-year-olds of the season. It was then that Brady and Allen decided to buy the colt and Forsythe was asked to put a price on the youngster. Unfortunately Fountain Blue is not eligible for the Saratoga Special or the Futurity, but he has been entered in the Flatbush Stakes, the Great Eastern and other events to be run at the Bay next month. Fountain Blue's sire, Oddfellow, was bought for $30,000 when a two-year-old. He is by Barcaldine—Gehelmness and has gotten some fairly good racers.

Fountain Blue, after showing some fast work at Hot Springs early this year, convinced Forsythe that the East was the place for him. He was started five times on the local tracks and has suffered only one defeat, which was charged to a bad ride by Jockey Sewell. His first appearance was at Gravesend on June 11, when he defeated Bat Masterson, George S. Davis, Oraculum, Curriculum and The colt was entered in the Sunshine Stakes yesterday, but he was scratched on account of the mud. Brady bought the three-year-old Accountant, by Filigrane—Reckon, some time ago from W. H. Brown for $45,000, and won the rich Lawrence Realiration with him, in addition to other events.

Last year Brady secured Oiseau for $27,500. But the Ornus colt has not been to the races this season. Fountain Blue may get a race at the Beach before the end of the week, after which he will be shipped to Sarátoga along with Accountant, Oiseau, Waterlight, Maxie Witt and Ellisdale, who compose the Brady string. Brady races horses for the amusement he derives from the sport. He some-times bets heavily; but that is wholly for fun, He is a good sportsman and has a big following among turfmen.

The defeat of George S. Davis in the stake event yesterday caused a lot of ugly talk. It was not long after the race that the rumor was afloat to the effect that the Cella books had laid against the Sombrero colt and had won a pot of money. It was also said that the stewards of the meeting had decided to investigate the race; but one of these officials when asked later in the day if there was any truth in the report declared that he knew nothing about the matter. Those who saw the stewards in close confab with Robert Pinkerton and Seymour Beutler after the races and then witnessed an earnest confab between Pinzerton and Louis Cella near the clubhouse were inclined to believe, however, that there was something in the wind. The fact that Cella now controls twelve books in the big ring has not been well received by the poregs that be, it is said.

What verid have been a tremendous killing had it gove through successfully was framed in the last race with a two-year-old named Gild, by Giganteum-Alcyone II., owned by William Huston. The gelding had worked three furlongs in 0:38 in the mud and was believed to be ready to win. In spite of the presence of the erratic Cochran in the saddle, Gild was backed from 40 to 1 down to 4. The betting was done, it was said, by Whitey Langdon for himself and for John A. Drake and others who had been induced to bet on the good thing for Huston by Bob McGibbon. For a time it looked as if Gild would cop, but he weakened in the run home and was beaten a head for third money. Drake, however, won a big bet on Anneta Lady, in the first race, let out an earsplitting warwhoop when the Hastings filly breezed home.

When the cloudburst came, just before the first race, the roadway outside of the main entrance was flooded. Racegoers were hop-ping out of the elevated trains and the trolleys by the hundred, only to be drenched to the skin, and getting under cover finally with wet feet. The rain fell in sheets for fully half an hour, and in the first two races the horses and jockeys were not only half drowned but were also blinded with mud, which was kicked up in a perfect shower. The betting ring was jammed to overflowing. It was impossible to leave it for the grand stand withthe big shed, waiting for the numbers to go Altogether it was the most disagreeable day that racegoers have experienced this year. Coming back to the city many trains and cabs were stalled on account of washouts; but the crowd, having enjoyed a profitable day, apparently took it all in good nature.

cil's Banner, a filly by Batten-Our Flag. In the first race. She was the favorite, but she came home absolutely last. The ring lost to this race at that, as Anneta Lady was played from 5 down to 3 and even less a moment before the start, while Mollie Donohue was heavily supported for the place. The success of Bound Brook in the steeplechase was another blow for the ring as he was played by the big bettors without limit at even money. New Amsterdam, who ran second, was also

It was the same thing over again in the third race. Woolwich was a hot favorite, backed by public and plungers alike. But Delmore burned up a lot of money for some body, as he was backed from 6 down to 2 at starting time. The result of the stake event was welcomed by the books with much satisfaction. Thousands were placed on George S. Davis at 9 to 5 and Penarris at 2 to 1, both being beaten. The books won heavily in spite of the play both ways on Gallant Dan and for the place on Frank Gill.

J. Grant Lyman was the picture of dismay when his mare Geranium won the handicap Lyman had been getting ready to put over a killing, but when the betting opened he found that the shrewd layers were onto his game and offered him a measly 7 to 5. Lyman sighed, but he sent his commission into the books just the same. It was a fat one, too, and the odds dropped to 6 to 5. Then, as the horses were leaving the paddock, an agent hustled up to Lyman and said:

"Geranium is now 2 to 1!"

Lyman could hardly speak, and after Geranium had won on the bit her owner looked as if he had lost his last friend. A plunge on Ebony caused Geranium's price to go up. The books won on this race, as Little Scout was also widely supported.

The betting on the last race, aside from the big play on Gild, was so open that the public seemed puzzled. The really smart coin went on Eudora, but Elfall, Russell T., Norfolk, Lady Vincent, Fish Hawk and Compensation were all liberally played. Hunch players took James R. Keene's Slippery, a filly by Commando—Skim, at 30 to 1, because of the condition of the track. Alto-gether the ring suffered some big losses.

Previous winners of the Sunshize Stakes were Pasadena and Esoteric, who beat Whimsical last year over a muddy track.
Gallant Dan's time, 1:07 2-5, was only a fifth of a second behind the record for the racs, hung up by Pasadena.

GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK. SUNSHINE FOR GALLANT DAN: Doggett's Colt Wins the Stake Event in the Mud.

The heavy rain before and during nearly all of the races at Brighton yesterday not only turned the going into a sea of sloppy. yellow mud but also drenched many of the spectators. Yet in spite of the disagreeable Killing Framed With Glid Misses Fire weather conditions the crowd numbered —Bookmakers Suffer Heavy Lesses on all of 12,030 persons, who provided plenty of business for the ring. The stake feature sa the Sunshine, for two year olds, five and a half furlongs. It proved to be an upset, as George S. Davis, 9 to 5 favorite, ran a bad race, finishing last. Frank O'Neil's Penarris, an added starter, who was heavily played at 2 to 1, was also summarily defeated as the best he could get was third money S. J. Doggett's Gallant Dan. § to 2, on the other hand, ran in improved form, making all the pace and winning rather easily by a length and a half in 1:07 2-5. Frank Gill. also 9 to 2, got a good ride this time, but was second all the way, beating Penarris by three lengths.

J. Grant Lyman's Geranium, 9 to 5 favorite was successful in the handicap at a mile and a sixteenth. Ebony, 2 to 1, made the running for nearly three quarters of a mile and the tired. After that Shaw breezed Geranium to the front, the Lazzarone mare galloping home three lengths in front of G. C. Bennett's Little Scout, 5 to 2. Ebony was five lengths away. The race was run in 1:40.

Frank O'Neil's Woolwich, 6 to 5 favorite won the third race, for platers, at a mile and a sixteenth on the bit. He set a fast page and, never in danger, he romped to the judges W. A. Chanler's Novena, 15 to 1, was third. Big money was lost on Delmore, played from 6 down to 13 to 5. The time was 1:48 4-5.

The steeplechase, over the short course, was only a good gallop for Bound Brook, even money favorite. But his easy victory was in a measure due to the fact that Python, to 1, fell on the back stretch the last time around, when he was leading and going along at a cracking good pace. Bound Brook, after this mishap, had nothing to beat and won by twenty-five lengths, with New Amsterdam, 4 to 1, second, and T. D. Sullivan's Arabo, 5 to 1 third. The time was 4:28.

C. H. Richardson's Anneta Lady, by Hastings, backed from 5 down to 16 to 5, fairly revelled in the mud, and making every post a winner she rolled home five lengths in front of Mollie Donohue, 5 to 2, who in turn beat Cassandra, 20 to 1, by three parts of a length. Banner, the favorite, was last. The time as 1:14 3-5.

H. T. Griffin's Eudora, 3 to 1 favorite, won the last race, for maiden two-year-olds, five and a half furlongs. She was under a drive to beat Fish Hawk, 8 to 1, three parts of a length, with Elfall, 4 to 1, third, beating Gild, a good thing, by a head. The time was Four favorites got the coin. The FIRST RACE. Opponents at the Polo Grounds of late Opponents at the Polo Grounds of late find it hard to make a run, to say nothing of winning. The Cardinals were beaten again yesterday, making New York's seventh successive victory. In the last six games four runs have been made by opponents. for needless hurling around of the ball atterthe manner of college teams. In doing things that counted they were passive and mild mannered.

Beebe found it hard to control his speed. Beebe found it hard to control his speed. He started the New York to traversing the pike in the third inning. Wittse drew a pass, and New York's first hit followed, a slam to right by Bresnahan. Wittse took third on the hit. Bresnahan took second on a passed ball. Browne did not help the Harlem cause, striking out, but Shannon tapped a single between third and short which was good for a trip home by Wiltse. Shannon went to second on Mertes's throw-in, and that same throw-in being wild and going to the stand Bresnahan scored and Shannon went to third. Seymour walked, and a double steal by Si and Spike scored the latter.

Burch scored for St. Louis in the sixth inning on a single, a base on balls to Barry, a steal of third and Mertes's fly to Browne. That was the first St. Louis run here in two days. Incidentally, it was the only one in two days. Seymour misjudged Crawford's fly in the seventh inning and made a two-bagger of it, but Si squared himself nobly in the eighth inning. He charged in for Bennett's low liner, doubled up until his head was as low as his knees and nabbed the ball a foot above the grass. Supple Si, the contortionist, was cheered tremendously for the spectacular effort.

The first four New Yorkers up in the eighth inning flocked home. Browne beat out a bunt, Shannon walked, and Seymour pushed the ball toward Beebe. The pitcher threw to third, but Browne was there first. McGann hit along the left foul line for two bases. The hit completed the explorations of Browne and Shannon. There were still two on the bases, and Devlin's fly to centre scored one of these. Dahlen walked a safety to short right and brought McGann in with the fourth run. The score:

PITTSBURG, 1: BROOKLYN, O. PITTSBURG, 1: BROOKLYN, 0.

The Brooklyns and Pittsburgs battled grimly and brilliantly to a long deferred finish at Washington Park yesterday, the Pittsburgs making a run in the thirteenth-inning and thereby winning by a score of 1 to 0. It was the sharpest, fastest game played in Brooklyn this season and one of the best in the National League this season. There was only one error, which did not figure in the score, and there was a good deal of glittering infield work. Wagner, Ritchey and Lewis smothered drive after drive.

DETROIT, August 1.—It was close going between the home team and the New Yorks to-day, with the locals just beating the visitors to the wire. Chase was back in the game for the New Yorks, but while his mates outhit the Tigers they were able to work but one man over the plate. Both Donahue and Newton were effective and the fielding was clean and spirited.

McIntyre's single, a sacrifice and a single by Lindsay scored a run for the Detroits in the second inning, and from that on until the eighth inning it was a sharp combat without runs. There were two out in the eighth when Kleinow sent a screaming triple to left. Delehanty batteri for Newton and brought Kleinow home with a single.

Griffith went in to finish the game in the box and Donahue leaned against one of his floaters for a three bagger. A bad bound caused the ball to get away from the fielder. Donahue scored on Schaefer's fly to Hoffman. The New Yorks slipped up on a fine chance in the ninth. Conroy, Keeler and Elberfeld filled the bases with hits, but Chase fouled to Schmidt, Laporte fanned and Williams raised a foul to Schmidt. The score:

GUY BINGEN A COMER.

Trots First Heat of 3-Year-Old Sweepstakes in 2:12 1-2 at Cleveland. LEVELAND, Aug. 1 .- Guy Bingen, by trotting the first heat of the three-year-old sweep stakes in 2:12½ to-day, promises to be one of the sensations of the light harness world. In the first heat he troited the mile in 2:1239 and jogged home the last eighth of a mile. Had he been forced to extend his speed, he could have troited the mile in 2:10. James Brady, his driver, is positive the son of Bingen, will come close to taking the record held by Fantasy, when she trotted a mile in 2:08% at Nashville on October 17, 1893.

Ed Custer was the talent's choice because he had some experience in a race, but the chestnut son of Baronmere did not make himself felt until the second heat, when he tried to catch up to the son of Bingen, but the latter was just buggyriding at the finish. While this race was the feature event of the afternoon, the sport was of the highest class In the two pacing classes are series in the tree base filter. I denote it, Ferria.
